

BRILLIANT SUCCESS OF THE BAL POUDE AT YOUNG HOTEL

Powdered hair and black patches upon lady's face, with here and there a suggestion of ye old colonial times in some of the exquisite evening toilettes, made the feminine galaxy of beauty at the bal poudre at the Alexander Young Hotel last evening one of the most taking of its features. The ball was in honor of the anniversary of George Washington's birthday and the decorations in the two ball pavilions on the Roof Garden had sign of the hatchet legend of the revolutionary leader's boyhood. Great American flags were festooned across the ends of the halls the drooping bunting mingling with skeins of maile. Maile ropes were drawn from the center of the ceiling to the sides of the pavilions. Pendant from the center of the ceilings were huge baskets filled with the beautiful purple bougainvillea blossoms. In the corners were evergreen trees and across each was fastened a large red hatchet.

The electrical effects on the Roof Garden were very effective, a criss-cross of globes in red, white and blue lighting up the promenades.

Two quintette clubs played by the Ellis Bros. Glee Club, played in the two pavilions, but the makai end proved the most popular. Every dance was enjoyed and encored and dancing continued until long after midnight. The programs were pretty affairs. The cover was adorned with a sketch of a tree, a hatchet and a couple of cherries, the handwork of Mrs. Dreischmeyer of San Jose. The famous Alexander Young Hotel punch was served upon the roof garden. Several hundred guests were present.

The patronesses wore their hair powdered and many were in quaint colonial Watteau gowns. The patronesses were Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, Mrs. Francis M. Hatch, Mrs. M. M. Scott, Mrs. Henry Lyon, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. Raymond B. Layard, Mrs. Alexander Young, Sr., Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. H. A. Isenberg, Mrs. J. S. McGrew, Mrs. John McClellan.

Capt. and Mrs. Humphrey and U. S. District Attorney and Mrs. Breckons gave a dinner in honor of Captain Pershing, U. S. A., and bride (nee Warren).

A large and merry dinner party preceded the ball. Among those present were Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Mr. and Mrs. Deering, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, Miss Hartnagle, Mr. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Davies.

The patronesses were distinguished by a white ribbon tied upon the arm, inscribed with the same hatchet cherry sketch that appeared on the programs.

MRS. JANE STANFORD VISITS HONOLULU

Mrs. Jane Stanford, widow of the late Senator Stanford of California, and the surviving founder of the Stanford University, arrived yesterday on the Korea en route to Japan. She will remain here for about three weeks as a guest at the Mauna hotel.

Mrs. Stanford looks well and hearty and stood the trip nicely.

"I am never sea-sick, and therefore I always enjoy a sea trip," said Mrs. Stanford yesterday. "I enjoy traveling, and hope I may be able to come here again. I am stopping here in Honolulu because I always enjoy my visits."

"Stanford University is prospering and it certainly has a fine career ahead. I am adding another building—a library, which will undoubtedly be quite an attraction there."
